ABOUT CDAM

CDAM was formed in 1976 by criminal defense attorneys from across Michigan to provide an educational resource for practitioners in Michigan. A primary goal is to enhance the quality of representation of indigent defendants.

The conference is planned by CDAM's Education Committee and financially supported by registration fees and a grant from MCOLES. Thanks to this MCOLES grant, CDAM is able to sponsor this seminar at very affordable registration fees. The grant is administered by the SADO's Criminal Defense Resource Center (CDRC), which provides support services to criminal defense attorneys (www.sado.org).

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Gerald "Gerry" Harris Goldstein is a nationally known and respected defense lawyer and Past President of both the NACDL and the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association. He is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and Texas Lawyer's Legal Legends.

Goldstein is nationally renowned for his brilliant criminal defense advocacy and extraordinary skills as a lecturer. A 1991 recipient of the Robert C. Heeney Memorial Award from the NACDL, he served as amicus curiae for the NACDL in many high-profile cases, including CNN v. Manuel Noriega (1990), opposing network broadcasting of government tapes of Noriega's conversations with his attorneys; and Joe Does v. United States (1994), arguing that lawyers should not be required to disclose the identity of cash-paying clients on IRS forms.

His congressional testimony during the 1996 House Waco hearings is credited with helping to turn the tide against further suppression of citizen's rights in America. Goldstein served as President of the NACDL from 1994-1995. Goldstein previously served as President of the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association from 1992-1993. In 2002, he received the high honor of induction into the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Hall of Fame.
